LITERATURE

Literature Subject Test Breakdown

40%	60%
Strategy	Content

AP English Literature Course

| 28%	12%	52%	8%
Strategy Covered	Strategy Gap	Content Covered	Content Gap

Strategy Gaps

- Pacing
- Guessing penalty
- Strategies for more granular analysis of passages and questions

Content Gaps

- Greater depth in certain literary terms and techniques
- Use of humor and satire in prose and drama

AP English Language Course

20%	20%	30%	30%
Strategy Covered	Strategy Gap	Content Covered	Content Gap

Strategy Gaps

- Annotation and reading strategies for literary passages
- Pacing
- Guessing penalty

Content Gaps

- All literary devices used in prose
- All literary devices and approaches for analyzing poetry
- Familiarity with vocabulary used within fiction and poetry 1400–1900

IB Language A: Literature (SL/HL) Course

| 4%	36%	36%	24%
Strategy Covered	Strategy Gap	Content Covered	Content Gap

Strategy Gaps

- Answering multiple-choice questions
- Pacing
- Guessing penalty

Content Gaps

- Greater depth in literary devices and approaches for analyzing poetry
- Greater depth in Western-centric prose
- Familiarity with vocabulary used within fiction and poetry 1400–1900

IB Language A: Language and (SL/HL) Literature Course

4%	36%	26%	34%
Strategy Covered	Strategy Gap	Content Covered	Content Gap

Strategy Gaps

- Answering multiple-choice questions
- Pacing
- Guessing penalty

Content Gaps

- Greater depth in literary devices used in prose
- Extensive work with literary devices and approaches for analyzing poetry
- Greater depth in Western-centric prose

IB Literature and Performance (SL) Course

40%	6%	54%
Strategy Gap	Content Covered	Content Gap

Strategy Gaps

- Answering multiple-choice questions
- Pacing
- Guessing penalty

Content Gaps

- All literary devices used in prose
- All literary devices and approaches for analyzing poetry
- Familiarity with vocabulary used within fiction and poetry 1400–1900

IB Language A: Literature and Performance students should only take the Subject Test if they have also taken an English Literature course at some point in high school.